

PUBLIC RESIDENTIAL HOUSING (ERP): ARE YOU ENTITLED TO IT?

Public residential housing (Edilizia Residenziale Pubblica: Erp) or 'case popolari' (social housing) are homes owned by the Municipality of Bologna and rented out to individuals or families in need.

CAN I APPLY FOR ERP HOUSING?

YES! I can apply for ERP housing if I am an Italian/foreign citizen resident or working in the Municipality of Bologna, or if I have been resident or working in the Emilia-Romagna Region for at least three years and if I have an ISEE not exceeding 17,150.00 euro

WHAT DOCUMENTS MUST I HAVE TO APPLY?

To apply for an ERP accommodation I need the following documents

- identity document and tax code of the declarant
- valid ordinary Isee certificate
- registered rental contract and last paid utility bill
- valid residence permit (for foreign citizens)
- declarations of occasional or domestic work
- documentation regarding eviction orders
- order proving the obligation to release the inhabited house
- documentation proving the type and degree of disability
- judgment of separation or divorce

WHEN CAN I SUBMIT AN APPLICATION?

I can submit a new application or I can integrate an application already on the list whenever a new notice is published [ipertesto]

Acer and the Municipality of Bologna publish the provisional rankings on their websites, within the deadlines established by the notice.

If you submit your application, you will receive the outcome by email. If you are not satisfied with your position in the ranking list, or if you are excluded, you can submit a reasoned appeal.

For further information you can contact Acer.
